The Sketchbook Today International Symposium

The one day event will provide an arena to debate and discuss the sketchbook; its use, role, purpose and how this has shifted and expanded historically through selected key note speakers and UoN academic staff. Key note speakers include: Allison Foster, Tate Archives; Meryl Ainslie, Director Rabley Drawing Centre; Renato Alarcao, Brazilian Artist and Rod Bugg, Artist and Emeritus Professor, UAL. University of Northampton academic staff will also be presenting at the event.

9.30am - 4.30pm
Tuesday 16th June
Tickets £15.00 – Visit: shop.northampton.ac.uk (See School of the Arts)

Main Hall, Maidwell Building, School of the Arts
The University of Northampton
St George’s Avenue, Northampton NN2 6JD
The Sketchbook Today Exhibition

11th June - 2nd July 2015

Simon Callery
Sally Taylor
Rod Bugg
Sandy Sykes
Iwan Gwyn Parry
Meryl Ainslie
Sara Lee
Stefan Gant
Craig Staff
Jayne Bingham
Michael Evans
Richard Gant
James Engel

The exhibition will feature a range of sketchbooks from artists represented by the Rabley Drawing Centre, including Sally Taylor, Sandy Sykes, Meryl Ainslie and Sara Lee. Additional featured artists include Simon Callery, Rod Bugg, Iwan Gwyn Parry, Jayne Bingham, Richard Gant, Craig Staff, Michael Evans, James Engel and Stefan Gant. Another exciting element to the exhibition is that images from the sketchbooks, including student work, will appear alongside sketchbooks from the Tate Gallery Archive through the new ‘Albums’ feature of the Tate Britain website; the Tate has agreed to showcase The Sketchbook Today exhibition as their headline feature in the on-line albums section from 8th June.

gallery@northampton.ac.uk
01604 893050
11th June – 2nd July 2015
Monday-Friday 10am-4pm

Avenue Gallery, School of The Arts,
The University of Northampton,
St. George’s Avenue, Northampton NN2 6JD